

ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE SCHOOLS OF ARCHITECTURE, INC. PUBLICATION AND COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT

This form is an agreement between the undersigned (hereafter referred to as the Author) and the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, Inc. (hereafter referred to as "ACSA") for the submission of a scholarly paper or poster (hereafter referred to as the "Submission") for oral presentation at the 2015 ACSA Annual Meeting and for subsequent publication in the proceedings, The Expanding Periphery and the Migrating Center (hereafter referred to as the "Work").

To ensure uniformity of treatment among all contributors, other forms may not be substituted for this form, nor may any wording of the form be changed. ACSA will not publish the author's submission without a completed copy of this form. Please read the form carefully and keep a copy for your files.

ACSA Copyright Ownership. It is the formal policy of the ACSA to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of the ACSA, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate reuse of this material by others. Please note that under this agreement you will retain the rights to publish the Submission in whole or in part in another venue, provided appropriate acknowledgement is given.

Author/Employer Rights. If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work may belong to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, the ACSA assumes that when you sign this agreement, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this agreement. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this agreement as the Author.

I. GENERAL TERMS GOVERNING PUBLICATION

1. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Submission is original and that the undersigned is the author of the Submission.
2. The undersigned attests that the Submission has not been previously published by ACSA or any other party/agent, with the exception of proceedings from an ACSA regional meeting. Authors may use portions of works they have previously published. However, to meet the requirements of this term, the Submission should include a minimum of 60% original, unpublished material (text and other accompanying material such as graphics, tables, etc.).
3. To the extent the Submission incorporates text passages, figures, data, or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions for the material's inclusion in the Submission and the Work.
4. The undersigned further warrants that the publication or dissemination of the Submission shall not violate any proprietary right or the Digital Copyright Millennium Act (the "DCMA").
5. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this agreement.
6. The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless ACSA from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.
7. In the event the Submission is not accepted and published by ACSA or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by ACSA, this form agreement becomes null and void and all materials submitted to ACSA will be destroyed.
8. In the event the author's Submission is accepted by ACSA, the author must pay registration fees for the conference by February 4, 2015, in order for the Submission to be included in the Work. Copies of the Author's published Submission are available online through the ACSA Proceedings Index, or in the Work.

II. COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

The undersigned hereby assigns all rights under copyright and the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., that may exist in and to the above Work to ACSA, except that the undersigned retains the rights listed under Section III, "Copyright: Retained Rights/Terms and Conditions," below.

III. COPYRIGHT: RETAINED RIGHTS/TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Authors/employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Submission.
2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Submission, material extracted verbatim from the Submission, or derivative works for the author's personal or educational use or for company use, provided (a) that the source and the ACSA copyright notice are indicated, (b) that the copies are not used in any way that implies ACSA endorsement of a product or service of any employer, and (c) that the copies themselves are not offered for sale by the author or a third party.
3. In the case of a Work performed under a U.S. government contract or grant, ACSA recognizes that the U.S. Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Submission, and to authorize others to do so, for official U.S. government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires.
4. Authors/employers retain the right to use, after publication, all or part of this material in other works by the author in print or electronic format. As a condition of reserving this right, authors/employers agree that ACSA and the Work will be given first publication credit and that proper copyright notice will be displayed on the subsequent work (both on the work as a whole and, where applicable, on the author's specific content, if published as an article or chapter in a larger publication volume) whenever such publication or electronic display occurs.
5. The right to include all or part of the Submission in the author's thesis or dissertation.
6. The right to use figures, tables, and graphics from the Submission, and up to 25% of the text, for any purpose without acknowledgement of first publication.
7. The right to make oral presentation of the material in any forum.

Signature of Author or Authorized Agent for Joint Authors

For jointly authored Submissions the contact author should sign as authorized agent for the others.
