

ACSA / AIA

HOUSING & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

AVENUES OF EXCHANGE:
Tools for Shaping
Stronger Conversations
among Professionals,
Researchers and Communities

MARCH 16, 2016
12pm - 6pm

Sheraton Seattle Hotel

Workshop Sessions: A Vision for the Future, Fostering Successful Exchanges between the Academy and the Field, Best Practices Around the Country, Next Steps. Followed by a reception.

MARCH 17, 2016
9am - 12PM

Walking tour of Seattle projects.

Join members of the ACSA and AIA for an interactive workshop that will explore opportunities to increase the exchange of information and ideas between academics, communities, and practitioners to advance the teaching and practice of housing and community development. The goal of the workshop for presenters and participants to share and analyze successful examples of projects, programs, and resources, while opening the conversation up to new collaborations. The event will take place over two days with a half-day workshop on March 16th and a half-day local project tour on March 17th to look at of models of best practices in housing and community development.

REGISTRATION - $115

Earn up to 7 CEUs with the opportunity for HSW credit.

For registration and full information about the workshop and ACSA Annual Meeting, visit: www.acsa-arch.org/annualmeeting or contact ACSA directly at 202-785-2324.

SHAPING
NEW KNOWLEDGES

SEATTLE, WA / MARCH 17-19, 2016

104th ACSA ANNUAL MEETING 2016