QUERÉTARO

Historic Downtown | Santiago de Querétaro

“Inflections: becoming what is yet to be” is an international summit that delves into the intersecting inflection points of environmental and social trends, innovative forms of practice, and artificial intelligence. On the threshold of what is yet to come, we convene to critically interrogate and reshape the future of architectural education, nurturing generations of paradigm shifters equipped to bend our destiny. At “Inflections,” we delve into three distinct yet interrelated tracks:
